

Formnext Forum Tokyo

AM Industrial Seminar / Networking

Formnext is the leading global exhibition and conference on additive manufacturing and the next generation of intelligent industrial production. The show is organised by Messe Frankfurt, the world's largest trade fair, congress and event organiser with its own exhibition grounds in Frankfurt, Germany.

In prior to the show held in November, a satellite event "Formnext Forum Tokyo" will be held in Tokyo, Japan on 10 September. The event is formed of two parts: AM industrial seminar and networking reception. Inviting key companies and institute in the industry to speak, the event gives you the latest insights to the industry as well as Formnext 2019. Please do not miss the opportunity!
